C. and Mrs. Chester Cox, of Muskogee, Okla. The body is to be taken to Muskogee today. The date of shipment to be announced later. Funeral arrangements are being made by the Mitchell-Fleming Undertaking company.

M. D. Hendricks.

The body of M. D. Hendricks, 31, who died at 5:30 o'clock Thursday morning at a local hospital as a result of burns received while attempting to cut out from a burning building in Muskogee, Okla., yesterday, will be shipped to El Paso, Texas, and a funeral will be held there Friday evening, when it will be returned to Kiefer, Okla., by the Mowbray Undertaking company. He has been in the employ of the Gypsy Oil company for some time.

Glenn C. Adams.

The body of Glenn C. Adams, 61, who died in a local hospital from injuries received while flying a flying prop of a ball wheel on a dirigible in the Mount Washington air meet, will be shipped to El Paso, Texas, yesterday, as soon as arrangements are completed by the Mowbray Undertaking company. Adams was employed by the Prudential Life Insurance company as a driving contractor. He is survived by his widow and two children, Lloyd and Ethel.

William H. Hartmann.

Funeral arrangements for William H. Hartmann, 36, of South Tulsa, who died Saturday from an attack of appendicitis, will be held at 10 o'clock Tuesday evening, when the body will be shipped to El Paso, Texas, and a funeral will be held there Friday evening. The funeral will be in charge of the Masonic Lodge of which he was a Royal Arch member. Surviving him are his widow and six children.

John Walton.

The funeral of John Walton, 87, who died at his home of his daughter, Mrs. G. B. Watson, 216 West Eighth, between 9 and 10 o'clock Tuesday evening, will be held at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning at the First Methodist parsonage. The funeral will be in charge of the Masonic Lodge of which he was a Royal Arch member. Surviving him are his widow and six children.

Helen Reavis.

The body of Helen Reavis, 17, who died in a local hospital when she slipped on snow while walking to the Newmeyer Undertaking company. The girl took an ounce of carbolic acid after telling her mother that she was going to the service house at the house of C. C. Bennett, 1624 South Cheyenne, to dress to go to town. Burial will be at Shawnee.

Woman's Trial Starts.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Dec. 4.—Trial of Miss Mandie Moore, charged with killing Lettay Harth, prominent young business man of this city, was begun today in Knox county criminal court. Martin Hunter, who is held in jail here charged with being an accessory before and after the fact, will be tried later. Miss Moore's plea is self-defense.

Governor Gardner of Missouri announced the seizure by the state militia in that state. Mining officials in that state, who are in local hospitals will recover, it was announced here today.

Kansas volunteers were hampered by rain that froze as it fell. In that state the governor has received word that a few famine exists in 75 towns. Municipal wood piles are in operation in many towns.

COX CALLS MEETING OF OHIO CONTENDERS.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Dec. 4.—In an effort to settle the coal strike so far as Ohio mines are concerned, Governor Cox today called a meeting of operators and miners officials for 11 a. m. tomorrow in his office.

This action was taken after conference for several days with leaders on both sides of the issue.

Priest Places Freight Embargo.

Car shortage and the coal strike are responsible for the embargo on all freight shipments by the Frisco yesterday. Congestion of freight in all coal burning communities has been growing serious for several days and the embargo was not unexpected.

of Arkansas, Oklahoma and Texas left today for Indianapolis, Ind., to surrender to answer to charges of criminal contempt preferred against officials of the mine workers as a result of the coal strike.

William Daley, president of McAlester, member of the international executive board from the same district to Canada and telegrams have been sent him urging his immediate return to Indianapolis to surrender.

CITY STILL SERVES COAL.
"Coal will be supplied the homes of the city as long as the supply lasts," declared Mayor C. H. Hubbard last night. Deliveries were delayed yesterday afternoon owing to the bad condition of the roads between the city and the various strip mines. Breakdowns in the Seneca mines were repaired yesterday afternoon so delivery of coal from that mine can be resumed this morning. At present the mayor's office is able to furnish 100 tons daily to citizens in need of fuel at about $7 a ton.

Following is the program. Prelude, Elks orchestra; Invocation, Captain Pauline Marquess; Solo, External Father Mayer; Paschalke; Mrs. H. J. Moyle; Violin obbligato, Mr. Kramer; Ritual exercises, Tulsa Lodge 946; Violin duet, Master Jack and Ben; McPhee Memorial address, Chief Justice, Thomas H. Owen of the Oklahoma Supreme Court; Troubome solo, Jack Reuben; Closing ceremony, Captain Edward Mechanics; Finale, Elks orchestra.

There are unlimited opportunities for a girl to advance with the southwestern Bell Telephone company. In the Tulsa office there are nearly 60 supervisory positions available to girls who are willing to work for them. Ability is recognized and girls who show it are marked for promotion.
